Neopost USA Awarded NJPA National Contract for Postage Meters, Equipment & Mailing Supplies

MILFORD, CT, June 9, 2010 – Neopost USA, the fastest-growing worldwide provider of mailing and shipping solutions, has been awarded a nationwide contract by the National Joint Powers Alliance® (NJPA) to provide postage meters, equipment and mailing supplies to local government, education and non-profit organizations. The NJPA bid evaluation committee awarded the contract to Neopost USA based upon a criteria of product quality, customer service, pricing and overall market leadership.

“We are genuinely excited about partnering with NJPA to supply Neopost and Hasler mailing and shipping solutions to the public sector,” says Jim Leiby, Director, Government Sales, Neopost USA. “This is an excellent opportunity for the two organizations to provide cost saving assistance to a large market segment now operating under serious financial pressures. Serving these organizations is a critical component of Neopost USA’s presence in the United States.”

The Neopost USA/NJPA contract offers government, education and non-profit agencies a purchasing solution that satisfies most of these organizations’ competitive bid requirements. In addition, Neopost USA will provide NJPA members with various cutting edge products and services, industry expertise for assessing a company's mailing requirements and quality customer service for responding to any need that arises.
